

ITF Safe Rates Experts Network Founding Members

Name	Affiliation	Area of expertise
Australia
Michael Quinlan	Emeritus Professor of Industrial Relations at University of New South Wales (UNSW Sydney) / Life-long member of TWU	Occupational health and safety (OSH) and risk, particularly aspects related to work organisation, management and regulation
David Peetz	Emeritus Professor at the Department of Employment Relations and Human Resources, Griffith Business School / Laurie Carmichael Distinguished Research Fellow, Centre for Future Work, Australia Institute	Labour and employment relations, productivity, gender and labour, public policy and regulation, collective bargaining, trade union education and renewal, labour markets
Michael Rawling	Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Technology, Sydney	Labour law with a particular focus on regulating supply chains and gig economy arrangements for the protection of transport workers
United States
Michael Belzer	Professor of Economics and Director of Graduate Studies at Wayne State University, Michigan	Economics (industrial organization and labor economics) and industrial relations, with an obvious career focus on the trucking industry and truck driver welfare, including hours of work, compensation, and occupational safety and health
South Korea
Doojoo Baek	Senior Research Fellow at the Pukyong University Institute for Global and Area Studies	Industrial sociology, logistics industry industrial relations, and global value chains
Kenya
Jacob Omolo	Senior Lecturer, School of business, Economics & Tourism, Kenyatta University	Labour economics, policy analysis, wages and employment, youth unemployment