Its activities shall be governed by the following Constitution, in which the term "the ITF" shall be understood to mean the International Transport Workers' Federation. The English text shall be regarded as the authentic version in all matters relating to the interpretation of this Constitution.

For working purposes, the affiliated organisations' declared membership is divided into the following industrial sections:

Railway Workers' Section
Road Transport Workers' Section
Inland Navigation Section
Dockers' Section

- (3) The ITF shall be given as much notice as possible of the likelihood of such a dispute and as much information as possible on the issues involved and on the attitude to the dispute of other affiliates and important trade union organisations in the country where the dispute takes place.
- (4) An affiliate facing an important dispute which may involve the ITF shall not call upon affiliates of the ITF outside its own country for assistance without having first consulted with the General Secretary of the ITF. The same applies to calls to non-affiliated organisations abroad for assistance or support. Contraventions of this provision shall absolve the ITF from any obligation to give or continue to give support.

- (5) The General Secretary shall, upon receipt of a call for assistance, take all appropriate steps in order to acquaint himself/herself with the facts involved and shall take such measures as he/she judges to be appropriate and practical in consultation, if necessary, with the Management Committee.

The decisions of the arbitrator(s) shall be binding on the parties.
- (2) The arbitration procedure shall be decided from case to case by the General Secretary in consultation with the Chair or Chairs of the Section or Sections concerned and the parties to the dispute.

RULE XVII

- (1) Each Ordinary Congress shall decide the standard rate of affiliation fees payable by the affiliated organisations per head of their declared membership in accordance with Rule II, paragraph (3)(a), for the period up to the end of the year in which the next Ordinary Congress shall take place. The Executive Board shall fix a minimum number of members for the purposes of establishing affiliation fees due from affiliates having a very small fee-paying membership.
- (2) The Executive Board shall have authority to call for supplementary payments from affiliated organisations to meet essential commitments.

- (3) The Executive Board shall, at its discretion, authorise an affiliated organisation to pay affiliation fees at less than the standard rate if the Board is satisfied that the financial situation of the affiliate or the low standard of earnings of its membership justifies such a concession.
- (4) The Executive Board shall fix the deadline by which affiliation fees must be paid. Membership of new affiliates shall not become effective until after an initial payment of fees due, which shall be determined by the Executive Board. The General Secretary shall lay before the Management Committee each financial year a list of affiliates in arrears for consideration of action in accordance with Rule III, paragraph (2).

RULE XVIII
